

What is the National Ninja League (NNL)?

The NNL is an organization of the 11 founding Ninja gyms across the Nation. They have come together to bring America the largest series of events in Ninja history! The goal is to provide awesome opportunities for the current and future Ninjas of America!

How do I join in?

You can join by signing up for your first NNL Qualifier at Level Up today!

What is the NNL Qualifier schedule and what are the age divisions?

Level Up has the following tentative schedule planned for our two NNL qualifying competitions held this year: October 12th & 13^h and December 7th & 8th, 2019:

Saturday Schedule:

10:00 AM Teens (13-14) & Young Adults (15-17)

1:00 PM Adults (18+) & Masters (40+)*

Sunday Schedule:

10:00 AM Kids (6-8)

1:00 PM Mature Kids (9-10)

4:00 PM Preteens (11-12)

*A second wave will be added if competitor count is greater than 50.

The competitor's age on February 21, 2020 will decide what age category they fall into.

Can I compete in multiple NNL competitions?

Yes. Competitors can compete in every competition if they choose to do so.

Are there fees for the league?

There are no fees to compete in the NNL. The only cost is the individual events you choose to sign up for.

Why should I participate in an NNL competition?

You will be a nationally ranked competitor and have the opportunity to compete against other ninja athletes all over the world for the opportunity to become a World Champion.
